REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner respectfully asserts that none of the prior art, taken either singly or in combination, is seen to teach or suggest the use of a pillow comprising the particular structure of a curved pillow body having an average radius of curvature in the range from about 6 inches to about 16 inches and a pair of ends that are spaced apart from each other in the range from about 14 inches to about 28 inches without being stretched, as explicitly recited in Applicant's independent claims 1 and 11. With regards to the prior art, the examiner respectfully agrees with Applicant's arguments on pages 6 and 7 of her amendment stating that both the Matthews '185 and Zenoff '833 references clearly do not show all of the structural limitations presently recited in Applicant's claims; moreover, although several other patents describe various support devices that appear to meet Applicant's claimed limitations (as illustrated in their respective Figures), these patents simply do not provide sufficient data to determine properly whether or not their respective devices meet Applicant's claimed structural combination of quantitative ranges or do not present any specific dimensions at all. Hence, it is considered that the application is currently in full and proper condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
